CARBIDE PLANT INVENTS SAFETY DEVICES -- Yerevan Kommunist, 12 Aug 50

Through their own innovations, workers at the Yerevan Carbide Plant are perfecting production, mechanizing labor processes, and increasing the productivity of machines.

Without stopping the carbide furnace, workers of the carbide shop did away with the vapor lock. This resulted in great savings. Much iron was saved by changing the design of electrode cases. Attachments were produced which give warning when elevator shafts become obstructed or when materials are defective; devices which insure safe operation of crushers also have been developed.

PLANT INCREASES BICHROMATE OUTPUT -- Yerevan Kommunist, 9 Aug 50

The Yerevan Bichromate Plant is increasing production output day by day. It has attained high production indexes in its 7-month plan, and has saved a great deal of raw materials and power.

YEREVAN TECHNICAL SCHOOL TRAINS CHEMISTS -- Yerevan Kommunist, 12 Aug 50

The Ministry of the Chemical Industry USSR announces that the Yerevan Technical School for Chemical Technologists is accepting students for the 1950 - 1951 school year. The school prepares technicians for the following trades:

1. Machine technicians
2. Technologists for organic chemistry
3. Analytical chemistry technicians

The school has an Armenian and a Russian division. Both are accepting USSR citizens from 14 to 30 years old with an elementary school education who have passed an examination on the Constitution of the USSR (cral), in Russian (written and oral), and mathematics (written and oral). Students entering the Armenian Division must also pass an examination in Armenian (written and oral).

Students who completed elementary school in 1949 or 1950 with a grade of "5" in the basic subjects will be accepted without examinations.

Those who completed secondary school in 1949 or 1950 are being accepted for Course II.

Applications should include a record of education (original copy), record of birth (original copy), a detailed autobiography, three photographs, and a statement of health.

Examinations will be given from 10 to 25 August, and classes will start 1 September. Students will receive a stipend. Dormitory facilities are provided.

Detailed information on the conditions of acceptance is available at the school every day except Sunday from 9 to 5. Address: 66 Ulitsa Amirvana, Yerevan; telephone: 2-23-13 or 2-23-14. -- Advertisement
